

Business Improvement District (BID) Manager

Discover Twickenham BID is a collective of business owners who love Twickenham and want to work together to make Twickenham an even better place to live and work.

We believe in supporting social, ethical Twickenham trade, so that the area continues to thrive and grow in stature.

The district is fortunate to have great people offering creative and quality commerce experiences so that residents, businesses, and visitors can support local.

Discover Twickenham BID was voted in following a ballot held in January 2019. The 2019-2024 business led plan is set to deliver investments in services, projects, and initiatives, which will boost the town and support the 368 levy-paying businesses, over the next five years.

As part of this initiative, we are seeking to recruit a motivated individual with a proven record of working collaboratively in a business environment who can bring fresh ideas to manage and deliver the BID's plan to 2024.

The successful candidate will have excellent communication skills and be able to effectively manage complex relationships with different stakeholders. This person will also be able to demonstrate strong project management experience with proven negotiating skills at an operational and strategic level.
